IT'S REAL

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 ("Title IX"), 20 U.S.C. §1681 et seq., is a federal civil rights law that prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in educational programs and activities. Sex discrimination encompasses all forms of sexual violence and sexual harassment by employees, students, or third parties against students, employees, or third parties.

WHICH IS WHY WE HAVE A POLICY

Northland College provides equal employment and educational opportunity on the basis of merit without discrimination due to age, race, ethnicity, color, sex, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, veterans' status, or disability.

EXAMPLES OF SEXUAL VIOLENCE & SEXUAL HARASSMENT

• Sexual violence or intimate partner violence
• Attempting to coerce an unwilling person into a sexual relationship
• Engaging in sexual interactions without freely given consent
• Conditioning a benefit on submitting to sexual advances
• Gender-based stalking or bullying
• Repeatedly subjecting a person to egregious, unwanted sexual attention
• Touching of a sexual nature
• Sexually suggestive phone calls, texts, email, or gestures; jokes or innuendos; derogatory, degrading, or sexist remarks about a person’s body, clothing, or sexual activities
• Displaying or distributing sexually explicit drawings, pictures, or written materials
• Reprisal for a refusal to comply with any of the above statement

THIS IS CONSENT

Sexual activity requires consent, which is defined as positive, unambiguous, and voluntary agreement to engage in specific sexual activity throughout a sexual encounter. Consent as defined by Wisconsin state law:

"words or overt actions by a person who is competent to give informed consent indicating a freely given agreement to have sexual intercourse or sexual contact." Minors, persons suffering from mental illness or defect, and sleeping or unconscious persons are presumed unable to give consent. Failure to resist does not indicate consent.

– WI Statute Section 940.225 (4).

In order to make informed choices when consulting campus resources, people that have been victimized need to be aware of confidentiality and mandatory reporting laws.

- Some resources may maintain your complete confidentiality, offering you options and advice without obligation to tell anyone, unless you want them to.

- Other resources are expressly there for you to report crimes and policy violations, and they are obligated to take action when you report your victimization.

- If you are unsure of someone’s duties and their ability to maintain your privacy, ask them before you talk to them.

Students, faculty, and staff may report incidents to any trusted faculty or staff member of the College. Managers, supervisors, faculty, staff, and any other agent of the College (including RAs) are required to respond promptly and appropriately to allegations of sexual harassment that are brought to their attention.

DON’T BE AFRAID TO REPORT
Sometimes people are afraid to report sexual violence or harassment because drugs or alcohol are involved. The College’s highest priority is the safety of everyone on campus. Any other rule violations will be handled separately from the sexual violence or harassment complaint. The use of alcohol or drugs never makes the person who was victimized at fault for sexual violence.

WE DO NOT TOLERATE RETALIATION
The College prohibits any form of retaliation against a complainant. Any allegations of retaliation will result in an immediate investigation and appropriate action consistent with the College’s due process procedures. Examples of retaliation include:

- Pressuring a complainant to withdraw the complaint
- Sending unwelcomed messages directly, through acquaintances, or electronically
- Lowering your grade
- Stalking or threatening a complainant
- Poor performance report
- Failure to provide campus services such as housing, billing, registration
- Removal from classes, teams, activities
- Change of work schedule and/or work duties
